

SOCIETY

A Northern tour. They will return after November 15th to No. 117 West Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron Fulcher, whose marriage Wednesday last at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Valentine, was a social event of interest both in Richmond and Staunton, and who are now visiting the groom's parents in the latter city, will return to Richmond about November the 1st and make their home at No. 622 North Twenty-third Street.

Among the guests at the wedding were Miss Kate Fulcher, of Staunton, Va.; Mr. Plummer, of Portsmouth; Mrs. Eugene Robinson, Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. A. B. Laughon, Mrs. Charles H. Spott, Mrs. Charles E. Lott, Mrs. Henry Spott, Miss Edna Valentine, Miss Edith McConnell, Miss Ruth Valentine, Mr. Eugene Valentine, Miss Elizabeth Laughon, Mr. Norris Bailey, Mr. William Laughon and Miss Rosamond Brainer.

The approaching wedding is announced of Miss Eleanor May Gathright and Mr. William Fleet Kirk, of this city. Miss Gathright is a graduate of Hollins and a member of that institution. Mr. Kirk is a member of the Pointdexter-Kirk-Parish Company in business.

The wedding will be celebrated in November at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. D. G. Watkins, of Lakeside.

The Woman's Club.

Tea will be served at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock.

On Saturday afternoon, October 23rd, at half-past 4 o'clock, the club will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Isabella Charles Davis, of New York, who comes to Richmond to attend the meeting of the King's Daughters to be held this week, and who has kindly consented to prolong her stay in order to address the ladies. Mrs. Davis will receive a cordial greeting as she is most pleasantly remembered by the club.

Mrs. Roswell D. Hitchcock is spending the week in Richmond and is receiving much attention socially. It is hoped that she may remain over Sunday so as to attend the tea at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon.

Mr. John H. Powell left Richmond last Monday en route for Vienna, where he will continue his musical studies with Herr Lerchitzky.

On Friday night the assembly german had its annual meeting, which was most enthusiastic and satisfactory. So much business came up that it was found necessary to adjourn until next Tuesday night, October 27th, when the club officers will be elected for the ensuing season. There is every prospect of a brilliant season for this popular organization.

One of the most delightful entertainments of the past week was a reception tendered to the newly elected State secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Miss Estelle Rudd, last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Annie Coffee, president of Constant Y, on Grove Avenue, opposite Soldiers' Home gate.

Miss Lillian Taylor sang several pieces in her usual melodious voice, which was greatly appreciated. Miss Baylor and Mr. Kennedy added excellent vocal music to the occasion. Mrs. Johnson gave an interesting talk on the work of the union.

Miss Rudd also gave an admirable talk on the work and its possibilities. She fully demonstrated by her charming personality and thorough skill in the work that the union made no mistake in electing her its State secretary. It was, indeed, a masterly talk, and greatly enjoyed by all present. She made a lasting impression on the hearts of her co-workers present.

The ladies of the Retreat Board will give an excursion to the world-famed Caverns of Luray on Wednesday, the 11th of November. The Chesapeake and Ohio train will leave the Main Street depot at 10:10 A. M. and the excursionists will reach Luray at 7 o'clock that evening. They will leave Luray at 11 o'clock the next morning, arriving in Richmond at 8 P. M. The price of the ticket is nine dollars, which includes round trip railroad fare, stage transfer from the station to the hotel, from the hotel to the Caverns, from the Caverns to the station, admission to the Caverns, supper, lodging, and breakfast. The ladies hope that the beautiful Indian summer may occur at this time, as usual, but should the weather be cold or inclement, it would make no difference, as the Caverns remain at the same temperature, 56 degrees all the year, and the cars and hotel are heated by steam.

As this excursion is for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick, it is thought that many friends of that noble charity will avail themselves of the very moderate rates to view the most wonderful caverns in the United States.

Richmond is fortunate in addition to its musical circle in the person of Mrs. Mattie B. Thomas, of Washington.

Mrs. Thomas has opened a studio for voice culture at No. 101 West Avenue, and teaches the most approved method of voice placing. She sings delightfully, as well, and with gracious manners and a charming personality, is sure to win the interest of her pupils, besides making the study of music a pleasant task for them.

The choir of the Second Presbyterian Church has been reorganized for the winter, under the direction of Miss Mary Willie Smoot, the organist of the church, with Miss Katherine Belle Powell as soprano; Miss Agnes McCarthy as contralto; Mr. J. A. Mott as tenor, and Mr. J. E. Dunbar as basso.

The choir, which is one of the finest in Richmond, is ably seconded by an efficient chorus.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet Wednesday, October 28th, at noon. The ladies in charge of the bazaar in Manchester have every reason to be much gratified. Attendance has been large, and every article is selling well. On Thursday night the crowd was much entertained by the fancy dancing of some little girls—Misses Mary Brown, Mary Powell, Katie Clement, Jeannette Christian, Louise Stout, Jean Johnson, Rosa Davis and Blanche Cole.

The King's Daughters.

The opening session of the annual convention of the King's Daughters will be held in Centenary Methodist Church at 8:30 P. M., October 27th.

The business sessions will all be held in the same church, beginning each day at 8 A. M.

Wednesday evening at 8:30, Mrs. Margaret Bottoms, of New York, will address the convention in St. John's Church. Thursday evening a reception will be given at the Woman's Club, where Mrs. T. William Pemberton will be the chairman of the reception committee, made up of the leaders from the different circles.

Mrs. C. G. Burton, State secretary; Mrs. Lila C. McPhail, recording secretary, and Miss McPhail, corresponding secretary and treasurer of the International order, with Miss Georgia Libby, of Centenary Council, Friday evening the consecration and

THE MEDIAEVAL EAST AND MODERN WEST MEET IN RICHMOND

A Glimpse Through the Kaleidoscope of Commerce as Seen by an Art Critic.

France, Turkey, Persia, India and Our Own Country Each in Turn Showing its Storehouse of Treasures to Richmond People.

Have you never been struck with the wonderful romance and poetry that is conveyed by some of the things we have around us every day? Not? Then you have missed a great deal of pleasure in life. The wonderful progress of our industrial and mercantile world has gone far to introduce beauty in most things that fill our later day wants, be they humble or pretentious. Beauty of conception and execution, of shape and coloring, and like music to the ear, so is beauty of lines and curves and colors to the cultivated eye, and the delightful dreams and fancies that are conjured up by origin and character!

To share our enthusiasm we would have you visit the third floor in Miller & Rhoads' establishment. A museum as much as a showroom, your visit there will be a pleasure and an education. Wander through their recesses, given over to textile fabrics, lace hangings, to foreign or domestic draperies and floor coverings; and if the coherence of the display and the rare excellence in lace or the examples exhibited does not touch some "corde sensible" you must indeed be heart of stone.

Pause in their Lace Curtain Department and ask to be shown some of their hand-specimens. Some beautiful Arabian Lace Curtains, priced from $25 to $50 per pair, recall the extravagant reign of Louis XV., when the great painter Boucher, himself, designed many of the charming effects which we now feast our eyes on. Or look at this dainty Marie Antoinette Curtain, how vividly its chastity and simplicity remind you of the unfortunate queen and king, under whose reign the French played at shepherd and shepherdess in lace and silks, tight stays and high heeled shoes. And think of the French peasant woman, for many months patiently working, deftly weaving, for a few sous per day, to create this magnificent hanging for your parlor window, my lady.

And now, what do you experience? Is this sacrilege? Or are you in awe and admiration for the majesty of "Twentieth" century mechanical genius, that reproduces the most intricate and costly hand-made laces by machine and power loom? True copies and perfect reproductions. And yours for a few dollars the pair.

But do not dally too long; there is too much to be seen to give each feature the attention it deserves. Proceed, and like a character in Aladdin's wonder lamp, you may feel and live in the atmosphere of the thousand and one nights. The Orient at its best! What soothing and mysterious power these Mussulman and Hindoo artists exert in their masterpieces.

Those beautiful Rugs, that in the wildest interior of Persia and Asia Minor were woven and collected by the nomad tribes, and on camels' backs, in caravans, after many weary days of traveling through deserts and mountain passes were brought to seaport towns and shipped to our modern shores. Oh, that we could get to read some of the histories these rugs would tell. See that silken prayer rug from Anatolia. See the arch, representing the door of a mosque, in which some good Mohammedan must have knelt to pray, the point of the arch wards Mecca. What secret prayers did it hear, supporting the forehead of the kneeling devotee!

Look at these Bagdad hangings. Can you help thinking of Sinbad the Sailor? And India has given its quota toward this splendid collection. These shawls, in every feature of their strong and expressive design, make truly beautiful hangings. This is a thoroughly stratified where, here and there in this beautiful department, they were assembled by clever drapers in cosy corners and nooks.

From Hindustan to Japan, here is but a step, and a stronger contrast could not well be presented. The ingenuity these Yankees of Asia display in their manipulation of bamboo and rattan is not only very interesting, but characteristically of the East. And the cost of these articles is ridiculously low.

There is much more in this beautiful showing to be observed and commented upon, too much to be dwelt on in detail. But if you would shake off the weary "douce fiente," into which the Orient has tempted you, just look at these new American creations in Draperies and Sofa Pillows. The first perfect expression of the new art of a young Nation, cannot imagine anything more snappy and invigorating. Yet artistic of a high order of art withal. The effect is too new and unusual to be described. These appliques, "toned and tinted" leather, harmoniously contrasted velvets, embellished by the pro-pen in masterly fashion, and in designs that are simply perfect. These productions must be seen to be appreciated and understood. And Messrs. Miller & Rhoads, who have invited all lovers of art and beauty to visit their third floor and be shown around, while to prospective purchasers they also serve as efficient, perfect organization and honest methods can make it.

memorial service at First Baptist Church will be directed by Mrs. I. C. Davis. The musical programme at the different churches will be unusually fine. Miss Edith Aylett Cofer, Mrs. Kate Barbour Howard, Miss Lillian Taylor, Mr. Edwin Boshor and Captain Cunningham being among the number of those who will sing.

Personal Mention.

Misses Margaret Roper and Margaret Whiting will be the guests of Mrs. J. Willard Craig during the King's Daughters' convention this week.

The opening dance of Mrs. Jennie McPhail's class will be held in Kindergarten Hall, No. 98 E. Floyd Avenue, and not in Helvidere Hall.

The reorganization of the class is looked forward to with much prospective pleasure. Yesterday's issue of Richmond's bright weekly news magazine says: On the cover of this number of The Cavalier is a picture of Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter taking a fence at Chantilly, the country home of the Blackers. She is riding that good hunter, "Squeedunk." Mr. Carter considers this the finest jumping picture he has ever seen. It was taken by Mr. R. A. Lancaster, Jr., who is one of the most expert amateurs in the country. Mrs. Carter is a famous rider, and she is as fearless as she is graceful. She follows the Deep Run hounds in Henric county, and in a most gentle and unobtrusive way is one of the best patrons of good sportsmanship in Virginia. She inherits her cavalier spirit from long lines of landed proprietors on both sides of her family, and is herself a scion to be proud of.

Mrs. W. B. Rudd, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Prosser, for the past two weeks, left for her home in Hampton, Va., yesterday. Mrs. Rudd is always received with great cordiality by her Richmond friends. She was pleasantly invited to seats in the boxes at the Horse Show, but declined on account of a very recent death of a near kinsman.

Miss Katherine Jordan, of Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Mary Van Emon and Miss Olivia Wilton, of Baltimore, are still the guests of Miss Mary Bernard Wilton, of No. 612 1-2 South Third Street.

The young ladies, who came for the Horse Show and have remained over since, have had a splendid time in Richmond, where they have had entertainments of all sorts, including a tally-ho, given in their honor.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Arthur Ponsoby Wilmer. Mrs. Wilmer and Miss Knox made the highest score. The club will meet again next Monday evening with Mrs. Wilmer at No. 517 West Grace Street.

Mrs. Lewis Merriam, who has been the guest of Miss Ruby Bodeker, left for her home in Washington Saturday.

The Rev. William Mayhew has returned from a delightful visit to his mother and sisters in Canada.

Mrs. J. B. Pinner, of Suffolk, and Mrs. E. C. Means, of Low Moor, Va., will be the guests of Mrs. L. E. Janney and Miss E. J. Boshor, of No. 717 East Franklin Street, at the State convention of the King's Daughters and Sons, October 27th to 30th.

Miss L. Estelle Perrin, of Amelia, was the guest of Miss Myrtle Phenix during the week of the Horse Show.

Miss Mamie Hayes has returned from Bristol, Tenn.

Mrs. Julia R. Tutwiler, who is the guest of Mrs. Ben Valentine, at No. 101

Mrs. Edward Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Brydon Tennant.

Miss Mary Lyons, of Richmond, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osbourne Sanders, of Oak Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ames Williams and Mr. Scarborough, of Richmond, are guests of Mrs. Courtney Selden, of Sherwood.

Mrs. Burr Noland has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tallaferra are in Baltimore.

Dr. Jaeger has returned from a visit to West Virginia. Mrs. L. C. Catlett is at Tree Hill, near Richmond, visiting her father, Mr. Heber Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones have returned from Richmond. Miss McCall, of Bath county, is the guest of Mr. Hunt.

Mrs. W. Martin is in Norfolk. Mrs. Fielding Lewis Taylor, of Rosebud, was delegate from the Sally Tompkins Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Gloucester to the meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Norfolk.

Mr. W. E. Cove is in Norfolk. Mrs. Snowden Hopkins has returned from a visit to Hanover.

GAINES' MILL.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Jeff. Nelson, November 11th.

Miss Beach, of Old Church, and Mr. Morris Timberlake, of Gloucester, were married at Bethlehem Church Wednesday.

Little Joseph McGhee, Jr., is still in a critical condition with typhoid fever.

Mr. Willie Hufner is slowly convalescing. Miss Hunter Garthright, near Cold Harbor, is suffering very much from rheumatism.

Mrs. P. Martin, of Gly Mount, accidentally hurt her foot. She is suffering very much. The little son of Mr. J. Wood is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Lee Camp is quite ill at her home, near Barker's Mill. J. Campbell has moved his family to Springfield farm.

Mr. A. G. Allison, of Hickory Grove, recently spent several days with his family at the home of Mr. J. Wood.

McGhee expects to move his family to Richmond in a few weeks. The annual missionary box packing, which took place at Walnut Grove Church was a very enjoyable occasion to all present.

Mrs. J. W. Burnett is quite indisposed. Gregory Turner, of New York, has returned home, after a visit to his sister, Mrs. Nannie Adams.

Mr. Hobe Camp, who resides near

MISS IMOGENE GREGORY, OF CHESTERFIELD, Sponsor for the Thirtieth Congressional District.

Mrs. Theo. Becker, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. N. Dalrymple.

RADFORD.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RAE, Va., Oct. 24.—The marriage of Rev. Mr. C. Cooper, pastor of the Baptist Church of this place, and Miss Carrie Smith, of Potomac City, will take place the 11th of November.

The marriage of Miss Amy Barger to Rev. Mr. Boykin, rector of the Episcopal Church at Abingdon, is set for the 21st at the home of her father, Captain D. H. Barger, of Shawsville.

The residence of Captain J. H. Washington, who recently moved his family to Birmingham, Ala., was sold Monday to Mr. Lewis Ingles.

Mr. W. R. Jordan was called to Pulaski City Wednesday by the critical illness of his little niece, Nellie Glendy.

The afternoon illness was relieved Wednesday by Misses Laura and Mackie Ingles.

Miss Lucy Biggs of Salem, was the guest of Miss Melita Wilson during the week.

Quite a number of Radford people attended the Roanoke Fair, a special train leaving East Radford at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

Miss Judith Barger, of New River, is ill with fever.

GLOUCESTER.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GLOUCESTER, Va., Oct. 24.—The South Side Fair, which is being held very successfully at Matthews Courthouse, is well attended and patronized by Gloucester. The presence of Governor Montague at the fair is a great attraction, as he is most popular in Tidewater Virginia.

An election day draws near local interest in local politics is, of course, on the increase. Both the nominees and independents are confident of the success of their faction.

The fall social season opened with invitations to a large card party, issued by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Janney, of Carysbrook.

Black Creek, lost a very fine horse last week. A colored man on his way home from the Rock Hill meeting was ferociously attacked by a dog with the rabies. He at last escaped, but the dog is still at large.

Tazewell Monument. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAZEWELL, Va., October 24.—The Confederate memorial to be erected on the Courthouse Green here to the memory of the Confederate dead of Tazewell county has arrived, and work is being done on the foundations preparatory to raising the monument. Persons conversant in such matters say it is one of the handsomest monuments of its kind in this section.

REINACH. Exquisite Millinery.

FOR variety and exclusiveness our assortment is pre-eminently in advance of usual displays. Our lines are not circumscribed by fads; they are broad, comprehensive. No cast-iron rule regarding shape; whatever is becoming to the wearer's fair face is her style.

The Parisienne has the reputation of being the best dressed woman in the world, and her secret is simple and easily adapted. She adapts herself to the fashion—she does not adapt the fashion to herself. Close imitation of a season's novelty is too much practiced, and more attention is given to fashion than to style.

In this very spirit we have in the past, and shall continue always to cater to the intelligent taste of the feminine community, creating and adopting each season a style that thoroughly harmonizes with the best fashion ideas of the day, without, however, making the wearer an object of derisive and conspicuous notice.

Fredericksburg Committee's Plan for Election.

CONFUSION IN GAME LAW

The Penalties Heavy and Many Hunters Liable to Get Into Trouble—Twenty-five Hundred Pounds of Carp at a Haul—A Fine Bull.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, Va., October 24. The Executive Committee of the Democratic party of this city has arranged its plans for the coming election. A committee on finance and precincts committees have been appointed, and a special committee named to prepare an address to the people on the "Issues of the Campaign."

Much confusion exists in reference to the game law, and there is said to be considerable unlawful gunning in this section. In a number of instances it is due to ignorance of the law, while some are indifferent to the law. The new law is very strict and the penalties are heavy. It is probable that a number of gunners will get into trouble.

In the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Gruver against the city for damages of $300 for injuries said to have been caused by alleged defective pavements, which was tried recently and resulted in a verdict for the city, a jury in the Corporation Court on Wednesday, October 28th.

A FINE BULL. Mr. W. C. Dickenson, a prominent farmer of Essex county, has just received from a Northern breeder a fine Hereford bull, which he paid $3,000.

The Washington Guards, of this city, are preparing for a big bazaar to last one week, the proceeds to form a fund to be used towards defraying the expenses of the company on a trip next year to the St. Louis Exposition.

Major and Mrs. Alexander Quail and three children, of Spotsylvania County, have gone to spend the winter in Chicago, and next month will make their home in the State of Iowa.

BIG CATCH OF CARP. Mr. E. R. Bowie, a well known fisherman of Stafford county, made a remarkable haul in Potomac Creek, a tributary of the Potomac River, late yesterday. He caught in a seine about 100 German carp, which averaged about twenty-five pounds each. This is said to be the largest number of carp ever caught in this section in a seine at one time. They are thought to be a market to-day and a portion of them sold here, and the balance were shipped to a Northern market by express.

The Dramatic Club of Fredericksburg College artfully presented two comedy sketches at the college hall before a large and pleased audience last night. The principals in the plays were Mr. Bass, Mr. Speer, Miss Lena Rowe and Miss Edith Barber. The proceeds were for the benefit of the athletic association.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING

Gathering of Teachers and Distinguished Speakers in Chesterfield.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, Va., Oct. 24.—A large number of public school teachers and educational workers assembled in the courthouse here today for a meeting, the first in a series of conferences and in listening to speeches by prominent men bearing on the great subject of education.

The speakers were Dr. Robert Frazer, former superintendent of the Farmville Normal School, with longer terms, recommending in friendly conference, and in listening to speeches by prominent men bearing on the great subject of education.

Dr. Frazer spoke along the lines of what constitutes practical education, and the evils that follow its neglect.

It is a point of the need of Virginia for men of intelligence and high moral character, and gave some startling statistics showing the percentages of illiterate voters in the State and in the South as a whole.

Dr. Southall's speech was somewhat on the line of his predecessor, showing the value of training in the whole animal world, and particularly upon the human body and mind.

He advocated the consolidation of schools, which should be graded, and of a high standard, with longer terms, recommending free transportation of scholars where necessary.

Mr. David L. Pulliam, of Manchester, spoke on the "Modern Teacher." A basket lunch followed Mr. Pulliam's speech, and the tables which were prepared for the day of unveiling of the

A SLENDER DOCKET

'Squire Graves Had No Trouble Trimming Visitors' Docks.

'Squire Graves had an unusually light and insignificant docket in the Police Court yesterday morning. The few prisoners who answered to their names were drunks, and most of these were old-timers.

Thomas Coleman, a negro, was charged with shooting Thomas Pearson, alias "Black Tom." This happened four years ago, and since then Coleman has been dodging the officers of the law. Pearson was a burglar on the night he was shot, and now he is in the penitentiary. Now the question arises whether or not Coleman can testify in court under the circumstances. Counsel were not ready to go on with the case, and so it was continued.

Governor at Yorktown. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) YORKTOWN, Va., October 24.—Governor A. J. Montague arrived here Thursday night on his way back from the Matthews County Fair. He drove the entire distance from Matthews Courthouse and crossed in the ferry from Gloucester Point. He passed a comfortable night at the Yorktown Hotel, the guest of Colonel J. W. Rogers.

His Excellency seemed particularly interested in Poquoson, the most prosperous, as well as densely populated district in the county. This precinct is the banner polling place of the Peninsula, and never fails to roll up handsome majorities for the Democratic nominees. Mr. Montague expressed a determination to make this stupping ground in the next Presidential campaign, and York county people may expect to see him at his best the coming year.

He left for home Friday morning by way of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway from Lee Hall.

Old Offenders. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATAM, Va., Oct. 24.—Warren Jones and E. Lacy, colored, were on Thursday lodged in the county jail for selling whiskey without license. They were arrested by Sheriff Shellhouse on passenger train No. 19, between this place and Danville. Jones has very recently served a thirty-day sentence in Danville jail for the same offense. Lacy has very recently returned from serving a seven-years' sentence in the penitentiary.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM Is the Only Possible Way of Having an Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant, glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where young men and men have thin, brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that "permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens & Minor Drug Co., Special Agents.
